A Sharecropper's Contract

"The sale of every cropper's part of the cotton to be made by when and where I choose to sell, and after deducting all they owe me and all sums that I may be responsible for on their accounts, to pay them their half of the net proceeds. Work of every description, particularly the work on fences and ditches, to be done to my satisfaction, and must be done over until I am satisfied that it is done as it should be."

Source: Grimes Family Papers, Southern Historical Collection